

CLASS NOTES

national arena, winning the title of Chicago Golden Gloves Heavyweight Champion.

Bailee Wallace '14 recently graduated from Hendrix University with a bachelor's degree in anthropology and art history.

Turner MacLean '15 received the Ben Hogan/Colonial Golf Scholarship. It was awarded in late October at the Horned Frog Classic Golf Tournament at Colonial Country Club. The scholarship is given annually to a TCU female or male golfer who demonstrates excellence on and off the course.

Katie Nelson '16 was elected President of the Women's Football Club at St Andrews University. She and her ticket won the honor of leading the club from April 2018 through April 2019 over two other competing groups. A junior, Katie is a starter on the women's first team at center-midfielder and doing well in her studies as a dual major in international relations and modern history.

Logan Tinley '17, a rising sophomore at Vanderbilt University, is a licensed private pilot. He also is the Founder of Ascending Frontiers, a nonprofit organization that raises funds and awareness for pediatric cancer. Logan's inaugural mission for the organization is an around-the-world solo flight in a small, single-engine plane. The journey will last almost 30 days and more than 20,000 miles as Logan flies through Greenland, Egypt and Japan. The funds raised by this trip will be divided between pediatric cancer and research facilities. At age 19, Logan is the youngest American pilot to have circumnavigated the world solo.

Lauren Cunningham, Upper School Art and Art History Teacher, took three of her students on an end-of-the-year field trip to the Kimbell Art Museum where they ran into two FWCD alumni Jonathen Wilks '17 and Bailee Wallace '14. The group enjoyed lunch together, and Jonathen and Bailee shared their experiences regarding their undergraduate art history studies as well as some tips for succeeding in college.

A freshman center fielder at Tufts University, Edie Huling '17 made the highlight, game-saving play for the Jumbos in their April 21 game against the Amherst Mammoths. Amherst had been undefeated until Huling made a diving catch for Tufts to hand Amherst its first loss of the season.

Katherine Clum '18 sang the National Anthem at the May 21, 2018, Texas Rangers vs. New York Yankees game.

Turner Symonds '18 received an Invited Walk-On to play football at The University of Texas at Austin. Symonds also was selected to attend the Under Armour All-American Pre-season baseball tournament in Chicago this past January.

In Memoriam

D'Ann Walsh Bonnell
 JoAnne Breedlove
 Tommy Brookman
 Myra Matthews Buis '78
 Corrine Collins
 James E. Davidson
 James S. DuBose
 Jennie Beth Edwards
 Ruth Anne Hardin
 Garry Jenke
 John Kimzey
 George Kline '67
 Olivia Mason
 William Ogden
 Sue McReynolds Smith
 Robert Stackhouse
 James Glynn Stouffer
 Patrick Thomas Worrell